

Status of Implementation Among Registration Jurisdictions

Section 124(b) of SORNA (42 U.S.C. 16924(b)) allows all registration jurisdictions to apply for two one-year extensions to achieve substantial implementation with SORNA.

Jurisdictions that have been granted a one-year extension to July 26, 2010 include:

Arizona
Arkansas
Guam
Iowa
Kansas
Kentucky
Mississippi
New Jersey
South Carolina

In order for a jurisdiction to be granted an extension or be deemed to have substantially implemented, material must be submitted to the SMART Office for review. Jurisdictions may submit material for a variety of reasons, including legislative review, preliminary substantial implementation review or initial substantial implementation review.

Jurisdictions that have submitted materials for review include:

Alabama
American Samoa
Arizona
Arkansas
Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe
Coeur D'Alene Tribe
Colorado
Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands
Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation
Connecticut
Florida
Guam
Idaho
Iowa
Kansas
